FOREWORD

Hi Schoolmates:

We are going to be with you while you are "petting" this WILDCAT. We will share with you the pleasures, accomplishments, and disappointments throughout the school year.

This eventful year has been one we shall never forget; but when memories become a vague whisper, we shall turn these pages with a wistful smile and reminisce together.

Bill, Peachie, and Merle

To the Friends of Pearl River Junior College:

Each year brings new victories and new responsibilities. The Annual staff of Pearl River Junior College has accepted the challenge for the year 1952 and is glad to bring to the friends of the institution a production that will strikingly exemplify the life, habits, ideals, and traditions that are so closely interwoven into the activities here at Pearl River Junior College.

It is with pleasure that I have an opportunity to say, "My best wishes for a job well-done." Great things do not happen by accident. Anything produced that is worthwhile represents the guiding influence and the labor of things that are promoting the project. I feel that this book speaks for itself.

My true wish is that this book might be treasured by each and everyone as a keepsake, storing many memories of pleasant years at Pearl River Junior College.

Sincerely,

R. D. McLENDON
President

The 1951 Wildcat grid team was about as tough an outfit as could be found in the Mississippi Junior College Conference. This was witnessed by the 279 points they scored against a total of 40 for the combined opposition during the regular season. Although they missed winning the state title by one-half game they were considered by most observers to be the best in the state.

TUNG BOWL

Poplarville High	13	39	Amite, La.

The Hornets of 1951 were a smashing success. They lost the last game of the season and went on to the Tung Bowl to lose against tremendous odds. Bill Mitchell was the years's outstanding player. He finished his last year of high school along with staunch and dependable guards, Bobby Mills and David Smith. The backfield, led by quarterback Don Ladner, accomplished much plucky broken-field running. Many first-string men were lost last year, but the Hornets came out on top with plenty of team spirit and desire to win.

WILDCATS

Kneeling: Glynn Kerley, Ralph Mayes, Garland Parish, Hershell Ladner, Sam Clinton. Standing: Rudolph Thompson, manager; Freddie Seal, Charles Taylor, Mutt Watts, Charlie Devrow, Coach Woodrow Daley.

The PRC Wildcats of 1951-52 was one of the best balanced basketball teams that Coach Daley has had in several years. Every man on the starting quintette was a scoring threat; each was high scorer in at least one contest.

Mutt Watts was one of the main cogs around which the team was developed. His high scoring average and all around outstanding play earned for him the name of being one of the best centers in the conference.

Sam Clinton and Charles Taylor were outstanding on defense and very dangerous on offense. They always racked up a sizable number of points when they took a notion to do the shooting themselves.

Garland Parish and Glynn Kerley held down the guard positions. Parish's outstanding defensive game earned for him the respect of all who played against him. Kerley, the PRC set-shot artist, sacked large numbers of points.

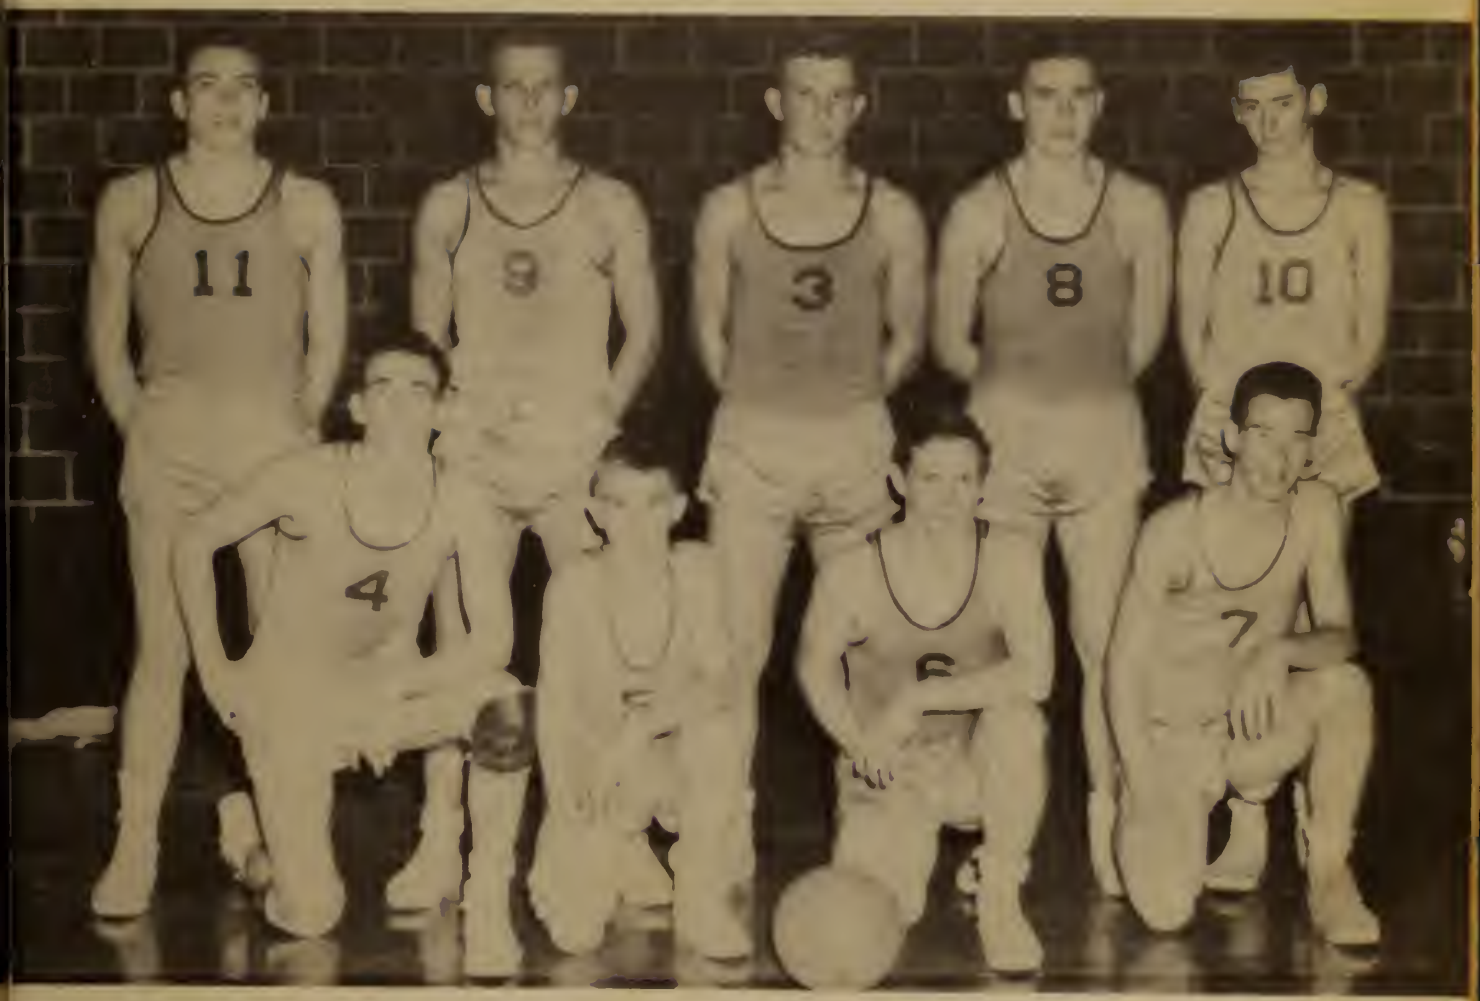
The Wildcats were much better than their conference record indicates. No conference team beat them two games in regular conference play.

P. R. C. KITTENS

Kneeling: Jean Bourne, Jim Morris, Charlene Hutson, Irma Jean Stewart, Frances Gipson, Nelda Fern Bracey, Jane Pigott. Standing: Beth Fuhr, Bonnylin McDaniels, Billie Sue Stringer, Marilyn Miller, Maude Warren, Marie Perkins, Mildred Ladner.

When the P.R.C. Kittens were on, they were a team to be reckoned with in the 1951-52 cage season. They, too, had a conference record that was not indicative of the fine brand of basketball they were capable of playing.

HORNETS



Kneeling: Don Morris, Bill Amacker, Bill Mitchell, Otis Earl Sanford. Standing: Don Ladner, Roy Sinquefield, Ray Sinquefield, Charles Tucker, Marvin Gordon.

After a successful season on the gridiron the Hornets took to the hardwood. Although the group of inexperienced boys won only four games, the season was a success in that it gave the much needed experience to them. The Hornets were second in the county and advanced to the semi-finals in the Sub-regional Tournament.

Leading scorers for the Hornets were: Morris, 102; Ladner, 73; Mitchell, 68; Sanford, 36; and Ray Sinquefield, 36. Tucker and Mitchell were selected to the county All-Star Team.

The Hornettes had a very good season. They did not have much luck in winning, but they gave their opponents a hard fight to the end. Rose Amacker led the scoring, with Betty Malley and Betty McGehee running a close second.
